

Erie Crime 1901

A farmer going home last Monday night was held up by two masked robbers near Boulder creek and relieved of $50 and a ring. Names of performers in this function could not be obtained,—Erie Review.

The Longmont Call, Volume 3, Number 20, January 26, 1901

The store of Richards, of Erie, was robbed Tuesday night. The thief or thieves succeeded in getting about ten dollars in cash and it is not known what else was taken. The indications are that the thief went in the store and hid before closing time, as the broken glass from the window was all on the outside of the building.

The Lafayette News, Volume IV, Number 163, August 17, 1901