

Rev. Antonine Hitenach,

OSB (possible)

1911-1914

The work of the church was administered by secular priests until 1887 when at the instance of the bishop and with the approval of the Holy See at Rome, the whole of Boulder county was placed in the care of the Benedictine fathers. Since that time the monks have had full direction of the Catholic church in Boulder. Father Agatho, the present pastor of Boulder, was pastor of the South Boulder church during the

- Instrumental in building Sacred Heart of Mary
- Born in Baltimore 15th April 1879
- Solemn vows 11 July, 1903
- Ordained a priest 22 December, 1905
- Died 11 July, 1938
- Was also possibly priest at St. Scholastica
- All Boulder County churches were served by the Benedictines at the order of Rome (Boulder Daily Camera 04/12/1913)

Biographical information provided by St. Vincent Arch Abbey, LaTrobe, PA