

Rev. Hernan Florez

2008-2016

Father Hernan Florez, 34, was born and grew up in Cucuta, Colombia. In 1991, he was introduced to the Neocatechumenal Way at his parish, which slowly evolved into a desire to be a priest.

He was only 20 years old at the time, studying for a profession in industry technology and working part-time in a factory as production manager. He had never considered being a priest. But his participation in a spiritual community pulled him toward the priesthood.

In 1995, Father Florez was sent to the Redemptoris Mater seminary in Medellin, Colombia. A year later, he transferred to the Redemptoris Mater seminary in Denver.

From Cucuta Columbia

Was pastor when St. Scholastica was a mission to St. Theresa, Frederick

Ordained May 2005

Denver Catholic Register May 18th, 2005