

1878 Erie Train Wreck

National Park Service Map of Railroads 1858-1950

- Two cars derailed, 3 miles west of Erie
- Train was traveling 25 mph
- Six passengers—"Country people living between Erie and Boulder"
- Conductor and 2 passengers all sustained head injuries and gashes
- Medical assistance was sought in Erie
- The engineer and remaining passengers put the 2 undamaged cars back on the tracks and proceeded to Boulder